Types of Adoption Sponsorships

Full Adoption Sponsorship (FAS) - Only available for family members or close friends.

Partial Anonymous Sponsorship (PAS) - All other sponsorships will fall under this category. No more than $40 will be given off any rabbit adoption. If the sponsor wants to sponsor more than one they can but the rabbits will be chosen randomly and the adopter will not be notified of the sponsorship until the time of adoption; once the application process has commenced.

Rules: All holders of gift certificates are subject to following the policies and procedures set forth exactly like any other adoption. If we find that the certificate holder or “adoptee” is not qualified or refuses to meet our adoption standards for reasons similar but not limited to; using insufficient habitats and setups—
We refuse the right to deny the adoption. We will make all reasonable attempts and efforts to make sure that the certificate holder or “adoptee” has had every opportunity to meet our standards of adoption by providing the proper educational materials. If we find that the “adoptee” or certificate holder is not willing to abide by the adoption policies set forth by our agency—we will not honor the certificate and the following procedures will go in effect. We will immediately notify the Sponsor of the gift certificate and they will be given the option to have the certificate money refunded or the monies can be placed towards other rabbit adoptions in “partial” anonymous gifts (PAS). No more than $40 per rabbit will be placed anonymously and the rabbits will be chosen at random. The adopter will not be notified of the sponsorship until the time of adoption; once the adoption application process has commenced.
